Pujas and Recitation Dedicated to repay the kindness of our Members benefactors and Friends

Dear Dharma Friends,

On 20 November, one of the four very special days of Buddha — Buddha's descend from the god realms of Thirty-three, after teaching his mother who was reborn there to repay mother's kindness.

In like manner, upon this special occasion of merit multiplying day, we deem it meaningful and auspicious to offer the gesture of repaying the kindness of all our members, benefactors and friends through sponsoring and dedicating the following Pujas and Recitations to be done by all the rinpoches, lamas, geshe and sangha of Kopan Monastery & Nunnery and all the affiliated monasteries especially for all of you.

Pujas, Recitation & Light Offering

- • Recitation of the entire Kangyur
- • Recitation of Tara praises 100,000 times
- • 1000 offering to Namgyalma Long Life puja,

Please submit names of your family members to us to be sent to the Monastery for dedication during these grand pujas and prayers.

All the merits accumulated by the pujas and recitation and making extensive offering to Sangha will be dedicated for the long life, good health, wellbeing and happiness of our members, benefactors, friends and associates. We dedicate for success in their life and activities, be they worldly or dharma and for world peace to eliminate war, famine, diseases, and drought to bring happiness to all kind mother sentient beings.

Special dedication will also be directed to all those who are killed in earthquakes, accidents and other natural disasters.

Although the center will sponsor the pujas and recitation, you are more than welcome to make offering to the Sangha if you wish.

The deadline for submitting names.. 18 November, 2016

Thanks and regards
